What is a CONDITIONAL?

From the book 'If I Were A Wizard'
Words by Paul Hamilton Images by Simon Howe

When do you walk across a busy road? You walk if the walking sign is lit up, right? That walking sign is the condition. A conditional statement says if this happens, then something else should happen. Great Grandma Sheila needs to be reminded to take her umbrella with her to check the mail if it is raining.

https://www.wizardcodingbook.com